OFFICE MEMORANDUM

No.DOT.28/2021/5.

A. Background:

Handloom Sector in Meghalaya is one of the largest unorganized economic sector which constitutes an integral part of the rural and semi rural livelihoods for economic activities. Handloom constitutes one of the richest and most vibrant aspects of the cultured heritage in the state. The sector has the advantage of being less capital investment, minimal use of power, eco friendly and flexibility of small production, openness to innovation and adaptability to market requirements. It is a natural productive asset and a tradition at Cottage Level, which has sustained and grown by transfer of skill from one generation to another. Weavers of this Industry are keeping alive the traditional crafts in the state. It is 100% women participation. As per the 4th All India Handloom Census (2019-2020), the number of weavers in the state has crossed 42,000 mark and the number of active looms recorded are 43,220 nos.

In recent times, this sector has seen increase in the number of weavers and some have started to take up as their full time economic activities. This increase in number of weavers can be attributed to various interventions by the Department of Sericulture and Weaving, implemented through different schemes / projects, number of Handloom Weaver's Group (HWG), Joint Liability Group (JLG), Handloom Entrepreneurs, Private Handloom Producer Units, Master Weavers, Spinning Units, Cocoon Producer, Professional dyers, etc., have come up in the state as the weavers find it remunerative and bring qualitative change in terms of their economic empowerment. Since the number of weavers are rising, and also that the weavers get due recognition and also remunerative prices for their products, it is therefore, high time for the Department of Textiles to recognized these groups/Units as these units are one of the maximum contributor to the employment in the rural areas, uplifting rural economy and livelihood of rural people right from farm to fibre, fibre to fabric.

B. Objectives:

- To streamline and coordinate the economic activities of these weavers, by encouraging them to take advantage of the latest technologies so that the weavers get good remunerative price by enhancing the salability of their products.
- To facilitate Marketing of Handloom Products/diversified handloom Products etc., through e-commerce and integrating all weavers to sell their products directly and thereby remove middlemen.
- To ensure that the weavers are fully equipped and trained in innovation and design keeping in mind, local, national and international markets.
- To insure that the department provides latest technical knowhow to the weavers and aids and assists in scientific farming of eri / muga species and other indigenous varieties of silk.
- To ensure that through the implementation of various schemes / benefits can be obtained by all stakeholders
- To streamline and ensure standardization in the production handloom products by different units/groups.
